From the Far West-Indian Depredations -Washington City California Company. St. Louis, July 27, 1849.

Captain Hughes was robbed by the Chevennes and Sioux Indians, thirty miles this side of Fort Kearny, June 8th. He was returning from the Fort, whither he had driven six hundred head of government cattle. They surrounded bim, about six hundred in number, and took all his horses, mules, baggage and wagons. He had but a small party with him, and they too were stripped of everything. The Cheyennes were in search of the Fawneer, and had destroyed a deserted Pawnee villa ;e the day before. The next day Capt, H. fell in wi h seven hundred Pawnees, Ottoes and Mahas, who immed'ately gave chase to the Cheyernes. A despera fight was expected, as the latter were in high spirits and fully determined on being revenged. Capt. Hughes brings no news but what has been an-

the Railroad. CINCINNATI, July 27, 1849.

The Big Miami River has risen very high and caused considerable overflow of the back water, thereby doing great damage to the corn fields and fences. The river see four feet and has now every appearance of falling. There is a fair stage of water hence to New Orleans. The Miami Railroad was so injured by the heavy in last night, as to delay the trains four hours.

Infanticide-Incendiarism Раттивской, July 27, 1849.

Some excitement prevails here respecting a case of infanticide which has been perpetrated. The supposed linguent is a German girl, named Mary C. Steress. esterday she complained of sickness and retired to Her ernduct excited suspicion, and search was nade, when two infants were found dead, under her bed, having been strangled. She denies all knowledge of them, but has been committed to prison, and the bildren buried. Incendiaries are again at work in this city. T. Black-

Burnham's Circular of the 20th says that there was a steady demand for sugars and prices had again advanced for brown and yellow, white maintained last quotations. Shipments to Spain proceeded with considerable activity; there were scarcely any shipments going forward to the States. A good general inquiry prevailed, and prices were firm. Several planters were holding back for a better market, feeling confident that the restricted quantities of sugar left would realize higher prices. Whites were quoted at 10 a 11½ rials; Choice 7½ a 5; Browns 5½ a 5, and Curuchos 5 a 5½. There were but few parcels of Muscovado in the market. The weather continued showery, and the growing crop of cane was reported to be in an unfavorable condition. Sales of select parcels of sweet molasses were making in the outports at 2½ a 3 rials. Coffee was in light supply, and some sales had been effected at 4½ a 6 rials. Fish had improved. There had been imported, from Boston. 200 casks of haddock which changed shauds at 26 rials. Frices of lard had been sustained and sales were making at steady prices, say 13 a 15 rials. The stock was qual to 4.700 kegs and half-barrels. Rice had advanced, owing to a scarcity of supplies, and the market closed firm for Charleston. The receipts were but limited. Sales of 10 casks Carolina were made from store at 11½ r. and 800 bags valencia at 8½ r., leaving 450 casks, and 600 bags in first hands. Two cargoes of lumber, placed from Gloucester and Portland (valine), sold at 20½ r. a 21r. The same amount was left for disposal. Candles of both sorts were in demand at advanced rates. A cargo of Spanish flour changed hands at 10½ r.; and 200 barrels and a cargo Gnyaquii cocca from New York, at 56 short price; empty casks were scarce, at 18 rials for first quality; Rhode Island hoeps would realize 545 a $50. In freights there was scarcely any inquiry for ressels. An American bark was chartered for $1 tetraburgh, at 2 s 64,

Markets.

New ORLEANS, July 21. 1849.

The sales of cotton, yesterday, amounted to 700 bales, at 7½c. a 8c for middling quality. The advance previously noticed has been fully sustained, and the market closed with an upward tendency in prices.
